Beach Wildlife Bingo

Coast Guard Beach · St. Simons Island

How to play: Mark each square you spot. Four in a row is a bingo. Fill the whole card and you are a Coast Guard Beach Wildlife Ranger. Squares tagged LOOK ONLY are for eyes, not hands.

Sea oats waving on a dune LOOK ONLY Never pick. They hold the island together	A ghost crab or its burrow hole Fast! Look near dry sand	Brown pelicans flying in a line Count them	A sanderling racing the waves Tiny bird, fast legs
A dolphin fin offshore Scan the water	The wrack line LOOK ONLY That seaweed stripe is a bird buffet	An empty whelk shell Empty shells are keepers	A white sand dollar LOOK ONLY Dark and fuzzy means alive. Put it back
A horseshoe crab shell Most are molts, not dead crabs	An orange oystercatcher bill Loudest bill on the beach	Turtle tracks or a marked nest LOOK ONLY Summer only. View from far away	A tide pool Who is living in there?
Fiddler crabs near the marsh One big claw, one small	An osprey overhead Listen for the whistle	A washed-up jellyfish LOOK ONLY They still sting. Do not touch	A piece of litter you carried out Leave the beach cleaner
